Thanks be to Allah.

Dear Muslims; the messenger may peace and prayers be upon him said “Let it be known to you; that this is day is the greatest of all days.”

The prophet in his final Eid talk he asked “What day is this? Isn’t it the day of sacrifice? And what month is this? Isn’t it the month of Thel-Hejja? And what town is this? Isn’t it the forbidden town?” He continued ”Your blood, your monies, and your honor are as forbidden to you as this day, this month and this town are, until you meet your Lord. Have I informed or delivered? My lord be my witness, Do not after me return to being infidel (non-believers) fighting one another”

In his Final Eid talk he was reported saying: “Only die as Muslims. And look at what you have done for tomorrow. Worship your Lord. Do the five prayers, fast your month, give your charity, listen to your leaders and you shall enter paradise.”

Verbally specify the intention and the name of who the sacrifice is for. Give one third for charity, one third as a gift and one third for the house hold.

Dear Muslim sisters, you; who have accepted Allah as a lord, Islam as a belief, and Mohammed (PPbU) as a prophet and as a messenger, hold on to your hijab, your honor and your religion.

لَبَّيْكَ اللَّهُمَّ لَبَّيْكَ I hear and I respond, I am at your command. No partner is with you, I am at your command, All gratitude, all mercy and all ownership, is to you. No partners are with you. I am at your command. Thanks be to Allah.

We ask almighty Allah for forgiveness; for all of us; from all sins. Do ask for his forgiveness. He is the all forgiving the most merciful.
